

PRETTY WEDDING IN SOUTH BOSTON

Miss Hattie Easley Smith becomes Bride of Mr. Henry L. Howard.

CHURCH PRETTILY DECORATED

Palms and Ferns Used in Great Profusion—Miss Mamie Barksdale Maid of Honor.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SOUTH BOSTON, Va., September 14.—The wedding of Miss Hattie Easley Smith, of Danville, Va., and Miss Hattie Easley Smith was solemnized at the Methodist Episcopal Church to-day at 11 A. M. Rev. W. T. A. Haynes, a relative of the bride, officiated. The church was beautifully and tastefully decorated in palms and ferns and other handsome potted plants. The bride and groom stood beneath a white wadding bell as they took their solemn vows. The ring was borne to the altar by little Bessie Adams, of Roanoke, Va., a cousin of the bride. She wore white lace over white silk, and was never more beautiful.

The bride wore a long-sleeved gown of brown imported voile, with hat and gloves to match, and carried white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Mamie Barksdale, of Roanoke, was maid of honor, and wore white net over white silk, and carried white roses.

The dame of honor, Mrs. Lynch, of Danville, wore blue silk, and carried white roses.

The bridesmaids were as follows: Miss Janie Howard, of Danville, sister of the groom; Miss Mamie Petty, Miss Anna Hurt, Miss Fannie Clark, Miss Lillian Conway and Miss Janie Richardson.

The groomsmen were Messrs. Will Howard, Robert B. Smith, James Robertson, Archer Gray, Tom Clark, Robert S. Martin, Harry Holland and Charles C. Barksdale.

The maids wore white mull and carried white parasols.

The ushers were Messrs. James Lipscomb, Charles Lovelace, W. S. Adkinson, Dr. Storer, Asa Holland and W. P. Averett.

Handsome Young Lady.
The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Smith. She is a handsome young lady of nineteen summers, with a sweet and pleasing disposition that endears her to her friends.

Mr. Howard is the son of Mr. H. O. Howard, of Danville, Va., and is a young business man of unusual promise. After an extended bridal tour they will be at home on Court Street, Lynchburg.

There was a reception at the home of the bride Tuesday evening. The home was tastefully decorated. The color scheme was pink and white. Light refreshments were served.

The presents were many and very handsome, attesting the popularity of the young couple. Among the guests present from a distance were Mrs. J. P. Barksdale and Mrs. James Adams, of Roanoke; the Misses Averett, of Danville; Miss Sally Hart, of Clover, Va.; and Mrs. W. T. A. Haynes and little sons, of Mt. Carmel, Va.

To Mrs. James Adams, of Roanoke, and Mrs. Throm are due the credit for the beautiful church decorations. Mrs. Jack Elliott assisted Mrs. Smith at the reception.

RICHMOND WINS BEAUTIFUL BEDFORD LADY AS BRIDE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BEDFORD CITY, Va., September 14.—Mrs. Clara Nichols Ewart was united to Mr. J. B. Morris, of Richmond, at 9 o'clock Tuesday evening at "Three Otters," the handsome home of the bride, about a mile and a half distant, in the presence of the relatives and immediate friends of the family.

Rev. Rev. Dallas Tucker, of St. John's Episcopal Church, officiating. "Three Otters" is the most notable and handsomest of the old homes of Bedford, and never did it appear more attractive than upon this occasion of the marriage of its owner and mistress. The brilliant illumination, the soft radiance upon the spacious rooms with their handsome appointments, elaborate and artistic decorations of graceful vines and fragrant flowers. The color plan was green and white, the green velvet carpets of the double parlors proving a harmonious setting for the white flowers and draperies. In the rear of the back parlor was an improvised altar covered with white satin, to which extended the aisle from the entrance of the front parlor, formed by broad white ribbons on either side, held by ribbon girls, Misses Elizabeth Ewart, Sue Nichols, in white silk, Isabel and Rebecca Ewart, Genevieve Morris and Jean Clark, prettily costumed in white organdie and lace. Their flowers were white asters, Miss Mary Ewart, the maid of honor, was very lovely in a robe of white silk, carrying white roses. Mrs. Annie Gordin, in white organdie, acted as best woman.

The bride, who entered with her brother, Mr. George S. Nichols, was crowned in an elegant costume of soft, silky gray, had gloves and shoes to correspond, and never appeared to better advantage.

The groom with his best man, Mr. Leslie Morris, of Chicago, awaited her at the altar. Miss Katharine Hatcher played the wedding march. After the ceremony and congratulations had been extended, elegant refreshments in keeping with all of the accessories of the memorable occasion were graciously dispensed.

The bride, who is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George A. Nichols and granddaughter of Mr. A. B. Nichols, the founder and first owner of "Three Otters," is of bright, generous, lovable nature, and has many friends here and elsewhere, who will extend her cordial wishes for her happiness in the new life upon which she has entered.

The groom, who is of Richmond, has spent the last summer and year in California and other Western States in the interests of his business. He is the owner of Hotel Mons, the delightful little summer hotel at the foot of the Peaks of Otter, and is well known in Bedford, where he has a farm and spent the summer for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris took the I. A. M. eastbound train for an extended journey to New York and other points North to Canada and California, returning by way of the Peaks of Otter. After a short visit to "Three Otters" they will go to Richmond to spend the winter.

DAUGHTER OF A MINISTER.
MR. R. M. HUDSON'S BRIDE.
SMITHFIELD, Va., September 14.—A beautiful wedding was celebrated at Trinity Church at noon Thursday when Miss Annie Maude Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Scott, became the bride of Mr. Raymond Minor Hudson, of Norfolk, Va. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. B. Scott, father of the bride, assisted by Rev. W. T. Green, pastor of the church.

The church was beautifully decorated in white and green, the many candles of the altar lending a soft light to the occasion. The dames of honor were Mrs. Percy K. Scott, of Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. John Hudson, of Petersburg, Va.; while Miss Annie Hudson, sister of the groom, and Miss Sara Scott, sister of the bride, acted as maids of honor. Little Miss Katherine Scott, niece of the bride, made a charming flower girl in a blue gown of white and carried on her arm an artistic basket of swansons and asters. The dames were delightfully crowned in white batiste and Valenciennes trimmings, while the maids were in white over green, and all wore wreaths of rosebuds and carried large bunches of ferns and roses.

The ushers were Rev. Dr. Thacker, of Norfolk; Rev. R. B. Hudson, of West Virginia; Mr. Claude Borhan, of Newport News; and Mr. Sellman Scott, of Smithfield.

The bride, who is a graceful blonde, was beautiful in a gown of white batiste with Irish lace and Valenciennes trimmings. Her veil was of tulle, covered with a spray of rosebuds, and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses. She entered with and was assisted by her brother, Mr. Percy K. Scott, the groom with his brother, Mr. John Hudson, of Logan, W. Va., as best man.

The bridesmaids were Miss Laura Allen, of Woodville, Miss; Miss Margaret Jones, of King and Queen; Miss Ellen Latoney, of Suffolk; and Miss Bertha Latoney, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

The ushers were Messrs. J. L. Henderson, Charles Sale, J. R. B. Wright, J. E. and A. D. Latoney. Hon. James M. Lewis was best man. The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Mr. R. P. Latoney, by whom she was given away.

They will reside in Woodville, Miss.

Miss Taylor to Wed.
CHASE CITY, Va., September 14.—Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Mason Taylor to Mr. Edward Matthew Halliday on Tuesday morning, September 24th, at Chase City Baptist Church. The bride to be is the accomplished daughter of Mr. Thomas J. Taylor, of Chase City, and the gentleman is a prosperous young lawyer of Morgantown, N. C.

150 Women's Suits for Fall, $16.50 $17.50 $19.50, Values $25 to $37.50

This house rarely or never speaks about any improvements or alterations going on in the store until everything is completed.

We are sometimes put to inconvenience ourselves—our customers seldom are.

We're a little crowded in our Suit Department just at present, and will be for a few days longer.

New ready-to-wear garments are rushing in on us, and we must make room for them.

We have one hundred and fifty Suits of Broadcloth, Panama and Taffeta in black, navy, brown, fancy stripes and mixtures; also a few light color fancy dresses that have been retailing from $25 to $37.50.

We've decided to make a big cut in the price of each Suit, and have divided the assortment into three lots, $16.50, $17.50 and $19.50.

It's a bargain that no woman can afford to miss.

Three of the New Suits

Fancy Black Check Broadcloth Suits, mannish cut, 30-inch coat, cutaway front, round corners, satin lined, plaited skirt, with fold. Green and black, garnet and black, brown and black checks; very well effect. $16.50
